What Do YOU Believe?

WHO: Join the DC "Belief" Host Committee this week as we celebrate Oprah Winfrey's "Belief" Series. Delighted to join folks from around the world in promoting this docu-series. An occasion such as this is rare, therefore, it is with great pride that I invite each of you to tune in.

WHAT: Oprah Winfrey presents this exciting new 7-day series entitled "Belief," a groundbreaking, international television event exploring humankind's ongoing search to connect with something greater than ourselves. This original series invites viewers to witness some of the world's most fascinating spiritual journeys through the eyes of the believers.

Per Oprah Winfrey, she said "For several years, my team and I have traveled to 33 countries to film the BELIEF's of all races, colors, creeds, religions; in an effort to show how somehow, we are all very much alike!"

Journeying to the far reaches of the world, and to places cameras have rarely been, "Belief" searches the origins of diverse faiths and the heart of what really matters. From the epic to the intimate, webbed throughout each hour are stories of people on spiritual journeys, taking them to sacred spaces.

WHEN: The docu-series will air on the Oprah Winfrey Network (OWN) nightly at 8:00pm, from Sunday, October 18 – Saturday, October 24, 2015. Each night, Oprah and OWN will air 3-4 personal stories of believers, told through their own eyes and lives, not the words of academic experts. Viewers get to see what makes people of faith so strong; how belief systems are distinct; how faith can be a tool of healing and peacemaking; and the basic humanity that binds us together.

WHERE: Sunday, October 18th is our special 'free' celebration, and it is our kick-off of The DC "Belief" Host Committee events. Held at The Worsley Mansion 1410 Missouri Avenue, NW, Washington, DC, Sunday, it is sure to be historical. Watch together, the world premiere of the kick-off of the Belief Series, with a reception, followed by a panel discussion from 6:00pm until 7:30pm. Panelists are: Honorable Mayor Sharon Pratt; Rev. Dr. Jacquie Hood-Martin; Rev. Dr. Barbara Reynolds; Rocky Twyman; and Minister Lynn Strange, (short bio's next page). Attorney CeLilliane Green will read a special poetic message. There will be other entertainment and simultaneous events going on in a similar fashion throughout the DC Area, give me a call if you would like to host a "Breaking Bread" event in your home.

Wednesday night, The National Mall, Sylvan Theater October 21, 2015 is our focal point. Both events are from 5pm to 9pm. We will also watch the docu-series on The National Mall. The program will begin promptly at 5pm with a special welcome by Joshua DuBois, CEO of Values Partnerships. All are invited! At the Sylvan Theater or Wednesday, October 21st hear from seven distinguished panelist, including Dr. Andrea Pennington, Moderator, who is flying in from France for this event; Roland Martin, Host of TV One; Georgia Goslee, Lawyer, National TV Host; Dr. Julianne Malveaux, Economist, & President Emeritus, Spellman College; Dr. Kanu Kogod, CEO, Bridges in Organizations; Rev. Sylvia Sumter, Sr. Pastor Unity of Washington Church; Cindy Pearlman, New York Times, Best Selling Publisher; The Howard University Gospel Choir, sponsored by Attorney Jack H. Olender will perform, and Howard University alumnus, Dr. E. Faye Williams will proudly introduce the Gospel Choir. Christin Clyburn, 13-year-old award winner will site an original poem she has written, and she will recite one of Maya Angelou's poems, accompanied by a violinist. Join us!

WHY: Bringing people together to discuss faith and beliefs, something we all differ on so much is a great opportunity for change. Join people from every continent, to watch this 7-day series on beliefs. People of all races, colors creeds and faiths will culminate under the banner of peace and love!

A special thank you goes out to Ms. Lillian J. Huff and Rev. Dr. Unnia Pettus who have served as co-chairs. Thank you to Sister Jenna, Kanu Kogod, and Rev. Sylvia Sumter for financial donations and continued support; it has been my pleasure to serve as chair of this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Thank you!

Our Distinguished Panel, Worsley Mansion Includes:

Honorable Sharon Pratt The former vice president for community relations at Pepco, the city's electric utility, was better known in national politics than locally, when she ran for mayor in 1990. Kelly, who then was using the last name of her former husband, one-time D.C. Council member Arrington Dixon, was Democratic national party treasurer and the District's woman representative to the Democratic National Committee when she decided to make her first try for public office. Sharon Pratt Dixon actually launched her 1990 mayoral campaign with a lavish, well-attended party during the 1988 Democratic National Convention in Atlanta.

The Reverend Dr. Jacquie Hood-Martin Executive & Christian Life Skills Coach, Author, Speaker, Trainer, Jacquie Hood Martin is a full-time servant leader and a woman "with a yielded Spirit." Hood Martin has been inspiring women and leadership executives across the world with her matter-of-fact teaching and leadership style for over twenty years. Whether abroad in Ghana, speaking, writing columns or in her books, Fulfilled! The Art and Joy of Balanced Living, or Wedded Bliss! A 52-week Devotional to Balanced Living, Hood Martin's focus is to bring the best out of each and every person. As owner of J. Hood & Associates, a boutique firm offering a range of personal, professional, and prophetic coaching since 1990, Hood Martin equips and empowers people for daily living.

The Reverend Dr. Barbara A. Reynolds, president of Reynolds News Service, is an award-winning journalist, author and college professor. She was a founding editor and columnist for USA Today and has recently published her third book: No, I Won't Shut Up! 30 Years of Telling It Like It Is. Dr. Reynolds hosts "Barbara's Beat," a Washington D.C. radio show and is a regular panelist on WHUT-TV's Evening Exchange program. She has appeared on Oprah, C-Span, and CNN. An ordained minister, in 1997 she launched Harriet's Children, a program for female substance abusers headquartered at Greater Mt. Calvary Church in Washington. Dr. Reynolds teaches at the Calvary Bible Institute and is working on her fourth book, the memoirs of Coretta Scott King.

Rocky Twyman is a community organizer, church choir director and public relations consultant from the D.C. suburbs who managed to draw some attention to himself for his profoundly moronic solution to surging gas prices in 2008: prayer. Now, I am sure he is not the only one who has tried that one, but Twyman even went on a tour, staging prayers asking God for cheaper gas in DC (with volunteers from a soup kitchen joining in), at a San Francisco Chevron station, in Oakland (church members) and probably elsewhere.

Minister Lynne Strange is an over comer and a victor of Domestic Violence! Involved in an abusive marriage for many years, Lynne endured near death experiences and maintained the relationship hoping that it would get better but it only became worse. Today Lynne is an empowerment speaker giving hope and encouragement to many that are either involved in current DV situations or those just coming out of one. She is also an advocate for Domestic Violence assisting victims with education, awareness and empowerment. Lynne is the founder of "Lady of Divine Inspiration" and has reached out to countless victims. For the past nine years, Lynne has been employed with the Prince Georges County States Attorney's office Domestic Violence Division. She is a mother of three daughters and it is her strong conviction and passion to inspire and change lives from the inside out.

Rev. Dr. Unnia Pettus Co-Chair

"Wherefore I was made a minister, according to the gift of grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of His power" (Ephesians 3:7).

Rev. Dr. Unnia L. Pettus has 23 years of public relations, marketing, creative writing, advertising, crisis communications, business management, coalition-building, public speaking, collegiate teaching, and research experience. In her career, she has served as a highly visible spokesperson in several roles, including her role as the Deputy Press Secretary then later promoted to be the Press Secretary to then D.C. Mayor Sharon Pratt Dixon, whose name later became Sharon Pratt-Kelly after getting married in the middle of her four year term. At the age of 23, Rev. Dr. Pettus was a history-maker as the youngest Cabinet member to serve in the Executive Office of the Mayor as a political appointee. News regarding her post resulted in a Jet magazine feature story.

Also, she was recognized as a "Top 30 under 30" in D.C.'s Success Guide magazine. Later in her career, she was hired to be the Strategic Communications Director for the 1.3 million-member Service Employees International Union (S.E.I.U.) of the AFL-CIO. She was also appointed to be the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area Press Secretary for the 2000 Democratic Presidential Campaign for Vice President Al Gore and Senator Joe Lieberman (D-CT.).

From August through November 2012, Rev. Dr. Pettus served as the African American Clergy Outreach Core Team Member for the Obama for America, D.C. Campaign. Immediately after the re-election, Rev. Dr. Pettus was appointed to work as a Faith Outreach Fellow for the 57th Presidential Inaugural Committee (P.I.C.). The food drive was recognized by the 57th Presidential Inaugural Committee, D.C. Director for The National Day of Service, Mr. Kouri C. Marshall, as a great success. In her role, Rev. Dr. Pettus held responsibility for recruiting pastors and clergy leaders to enlist their members to collect non-perishable food items, and to volunteer to sort and package the donated items at the event site for the National Day of Service. Hundreds answered the call to volunteer, and more than 4,500 cans, boxes, and other packages of food were collected and donated to local food banks, including Capital Area Food Bank and So Others Might Eat. In 2013 she was tapped to serve as the Director of Faith Outreach for the successful election of DC Councilmember Anita Bonds (D-DC) to the seat of DC by a margin of just 10 points.

From January 2010 to March 2015, Rev. Dr. Pettus, served as an ordained Associate Minister of Independent Church of God in Washington, D.C. under the esteemed leadership of Pastor Claritha A. Stewart. During her 5 year tenure, she served as Vice-Chair of the Women's Ministry, a co-instructor for the weekly Adult Sunday School class, and as a member of the Praise & Worship Ministry.

Pettus is the proprietor of Pettus & Associates, as a public relations and marketing consultant for clients with projects targeting specialty audiences, including the faith community. Currently, she serves as an Adjunct Professor teaching public relations in the School of Communications at Howard University. She also serves in full-time ministry through counseling and outreach to domestic violence victims and survivors through her ministry, Nobody But God Outreach Ministry.
